8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10 AT SEATTLE

11 GOOSE RIDGE, LLC and GOOSE
12 RIDGE VINEYARDS, LLC,

13 Plaintiffs,

14 v.

15 THE OHIO CASUALTY
16 INSURANCE COMPANY,

17 Defendant.

18 CASE NO. C24-1058 MJP

19 ORDER DENYING STIPULATED
20 MOTION TO EXTEND

21 This matter comes before the Court on the Parties' Stipulated Motion to Extend the 22 Discovery Deadline. (Dkt. No. 44.) Having reviewed the Joint Motion and all supporting
23 materials, the Court DENIES the Motion.

24 Rule 16(b)(4) states that "a schedule may be modified only for good cause and with the 25 judge's consent." Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(4). "Rule 16(b)'s 'good cause' standard primarily 26 considers the diligence of the party seeking the amendment." Johnson v. Mammoth Recreations,
27 Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 609 (9th Cir. 1992). "[T]he focus of the inquiry is upon the moving party's

1 reasons for seeking modification” and “[i]f that party was not diligent, the inquiry should end.”
2 Id. (citation omitted).

3 The Parties have not demonstrated good cause to extend the discovery deadline from
4 June 20 to July 21, 2025. The Parties argue that Ohio Casualty’s Motion for Partial Summary
5 Judgment “presented . . . a threshold question as to [what] . . . standard of causation . . . applies”
6 and that the Court’s May 19th Order “appears to have identified such a standard.” (Mot. at 2.)
7 The Parties also argue that the Court’s Order “also identified various questions of fact to which
8 the Parties intend to direct additional discovery.” (Id.) Absent from the Motion is any evidence
9 as to what the Parties did to develop the facts relevant to the claims at issue before requesting
10 additional time. They have not explained what discovery they need to conduct, why it could not
11 have been completed earlier, and why it cannot be completed within the time remaining before
12 the discovery cut-off. The Court DENIES the Motion. The Court’s denial is without prejudice to 13 a renewed motion that addresses the Court’s concerns and demonstrates good cause.

14 The clerk is ordered to provide copies of this order to all counsel.

15 Dated June 10, 2025.
